PLAINTIFF'S OPPOSED MOTION TO AUTHORIZE JURISDICTIONAL DISCOVERY FROM DEFENDANT COGNITEC SYSTEMS CORP.
AND COGNITEC SYSTEMS GMBH

Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(a) & (d) and Local Rule CV-26(d),

Plaintiff Blue Spike, LLC (“Blue Spike”) files this Motion to Authorize Jurisdictional Discovery

From Defendants Cognitec Systems Corp. and Cognitec Systems GmbH (“Cognitec”) and states:

1. Blue Spike filed its original Complaint in this patent infringement action on February 6, 2013.
2. On April 8, 2013, Defendant Cognitec Systems Corp. filed a Motion to Dismiss Pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 12(b)(2) or in the alternative to transfer pursuant to 1404(a). (Dkt. 625). In the motion, Defendant contends that this Court lacks personal jurisdiction over it and should be dismissed, or in the alternative, that the case should be transferred from the Eastern District of Texas to the District of Massachusetts.
3. On April 8, 2013, Defendant Cognitec Systems GmbH filed a Motion to Dismiss Pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 12(b)(2). (Dkt. 626). In the motion, Defendant contends that this Court lacks personal jurisdiction over it, and that the claims against it should therefore be dismissed.

4. On May 9, 2013, Blue Spike filed its Response to Defendants' Motions to Dismiss. (Dkt. 737). In its Response, Blue Spike outlined the basis for this Court's jurisdiction over Defendants—namely, that Defendants' infringing products arrive in Texas through stream of commerce and that Defendants necessarily uses their contacts with Texas to infringe the patents-in-suit.

5. If, however, the Court believes additional evidence on these issues is necessary, Blue Spike requests that the Court enter an Order authorizing Blue Spike to conduct specific jurisdictional discovery regarding Defendants. “[W]here issues arise as to jurisdiction or venue, discovery is available to ascertain the facts bearing on such issues.” Oppenheimer Fund, Inc. v. Sanders, 437 U.S. 340, 350 n.13 (1978). The Federal Circuit has repeatedly held that where the parties have not conducted jurisdictional discovery, a plaintiff need only make a prima facie showing of jurisdiction. See, e.g., Graphic Controls Corp. v. Utah Medical Products, Inc., 149 F.3d 1382, 1383 n.1 (Fed. Cir. 1998); Deprenyl Animal Health, Inc. v. University of Toronto Innovations Foundation, 297 F.3d 1343, 1347 (Fed. Cir. 2002). Blue Spike has made that showing and now requests jurisdictional discovery to supplement it.

6. This discovery, attached to this Motion as Exhibits 1 through 6, will primarily ask for information about the following issues: (1) Defendants' solicitation of customers, prospective employees, and business in Texas; (2) the extent of Defendants' facial recognition activities within Texas or concerning Texas sources; (3) Defendants' collection of data and other information from sources within Texas; (4) Defendants' sales or distribution of products and services that reach Texas consumers; (5) Defendants' creation or use of sales networks or relationships that reach into Texas; and (6) the operational and organizational relationship between the Defendants. Other discovery may be necessary as well, but these items are indisputably relevant to Defendants' claims that it does not conduct business in Texas or this District.

7. The requested discovery and disclosures will also provide Blue Spike with additional evidence to include in an Amended Complaint and submit in an amended opposition to Defendants' Motions to Dismiss. These are additional reasons for the Court to authorize the requested discovery and disclosures. See Trintec Industries, Inc. v. Pedre Promotional Products, Inc., 395 F.3d 1275, 1283 (Fed. Cir. 2005) (holding that jurisdictional discovery is appropriate where party demonstrates that it can supplement its jurisdictional allegations through discovery); Patterson v. Dietze, Inc., 764 F.2d 1145, 1148 (5th Cir. 1985) ("jurisdictional discovery is within the trial court's discretion and will not be disturbed ordinarily unless there are unusual circumstances showing a clear abuse"); Keranos, LLC v. Analog Devices, Inc., 2011 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 102618, *33-34 (E.D. Tex. Sept. 12, 2011).

8. Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(a) & (d) and Local Rule CV-26(d), and for the reasons stated above, Blue Spike respectfully requests that the Court grant this Motion. Specifically, Blue Spike requests: (1) that it be allowed to propound the attached interrogatories and requests for production to Defendants dealing specifically with jurisdictional issues; (2) that these discovery requests not count against the limited number of discovery requests available to Plaintiff under the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and this Court's local rules; (3) that it be allowed to depose Rule 30(b)(6) representatives most knowledgeable about the jurisdictional issues raised by Defendants; (4) that the Defendants be ordered to produce all documents and information relevant to its jurisdictional defenses within 30 days; and (5) that Blue Spike be allowed to file an amended Response to Defendants' Motions to Dismiss and an Amended Complaint after conducting this discovery.

WHEREFORE, Blue Spike prays that the Court grant its Motion and enter an order authorizing the requested discovery and mandating the requested disclosures.

Respectfully submitted,

CERTIFICATE OF CONFERENCE

Pursuant to Local Rule CV-7(h), counsel for Plaintiff and counsel for Defendants had a personal conference by telephone on June 10, 2013. Christopher A. Honea, Peter S. Brasher and I, lead counsel, participated on behalf of the plaintiff. Dwayne Goetzel, lead counsel, participated on behalf of the Defendants, Cognitec Systems Corp. and Cognitec Systems GmbH. During this conference, the participants gave each other the opportunity to express his or her views concerning the dispute. Moreover, the participants compared views and discussed the issues in an attempt to resolve their differing views. The participants sincerely attempted to present the merits of their respective positions and meaningfully assess the relative strength and weaknesses of their positions. Despite meeting and conferring in good faith, the discussions conclusively ended in an impasse, leaving an open issue for the court to resolve. Thus, this motion is opposed. Local Rule CV-7(i).
